Generation 5 (con't)

My Father told me that Elias was wounded and was at home in the front yard recovering, when a group of Home Guard came riding up and said they wanted his mule. Elias begged them not to take him, only animal they had left. Perry Grogan, who was brother of Elias' deceased wife, Mary Jane, ordered one of the men to get on mule at which time the mule bucked him off, Perry Grogan shot and killed the mule.

My father, Philip Pettett, had met Jasper Pettett, said he had a long white beard. After the war, Jasper stayed in Ohio for awhile and he and his family made their way back to Georgia. Said some of his kin and others never forgave him for taking the oath. Said maybe he should have stayed in Ohio, they may have had a better life.

Notes for Christopher Columbus Pettett:

OBITUARY:

(From the Minutes of Jerusalem Church, 1916, Deceased Ministers and Members)

"We find that God, through his purpose and wisdom, has called Brother C.C. Pettett, deceased 8 Feb 1916, an ordained minister of the Gospel for over thirty years, and in the death we lost a good man. A moderator of the Jasper Association for over 13 years, in the death of Brother Pettett the Association lost one of its best preachers, a sound minister of the Gospel.

May we, the Jasper Baptist Association, join in prayer that the Lord may send another good man like Brother Pettett to preach the Gospel to our people. As his mantle falls, may it rest on others of our association who will be as true to their calling and to the faith and to his brethren as he was. May God help us as ministers of the Gospel to contend for the fundamenbtal principles and doctrine of the Bible that he contended for, while he safely rests in the city on the river."
